NORTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY

College of Liberal Arts

Offers a broad program of college subjects serving as a foundation for the understanding of modern culture, social relations, and technical achievement. The purpose of this program is to give the student a liberal and cultural education and a vocational competence which fits him to enter some specific type of useful employment.

College of Business Administration

Offers a college program with broad and thorough training in the principles of business with specialization in ACCOUNTING, BANKING AND FINANCE, or BUSINESS MANAGEMENT. Modern methods of instruction, including lectures, solution of business problems, class discussions, professional talks by business executives, and motion pictures of manufacturing processes, are used.

College of Engineering

Provides complete college programs in Engineering with professional courses in the fields of CIVIL, MECHANICAL (WITH DIESEL, AERONAUTICAL and AIR CONDITIONING OPTIONS), ELECTRICAL, CHEMICAL, INDUSTRIAL ENGINEERING, and ENGINEERING ADMINISTRATION. General engineering courses are pursued during the freshman year; thus the student need not make a final decision as to the branch of engineering in which he wishes to specialize until the beginning of the sophomore year.

Co-operative Plan

The Co-operative Plan, which is available to upperclassmen in all courses, provides for a combination of practical industrial experience with classroom instruction. Under this plan the student is able to earn a portion of his school expenses as well as to make business contacts which prove valuable in later years.

THOMPSONVILLE, CONN., JUNE 1939

NO. 1

“ADDRESS OF WELCOME”

(By Ernest Burgess)

It is my extreme pleasure as President of the Class of Nineteen Hundred Thirty-Nine to welcome all present to the Class Night Program.

Tonight marks the beginning of our commencement week which brings to a close four years happily spent at Enfield High.

The class wishes to extend their sincere thanks to parents for all sacrifices made in our behalf, to the Principal and Teachers for their inspiration and guidance.

The Class Night Committee, having worked diligently to prepare an entertaining and novel program presenting the highlights of our four years, sincerely hope you enjoy it.

CLASS HISTORY

(By Thomas Sullivan)

Tonight you, the audience are to act as critics of a new play which as yet hasn't opened on Broadway. It is entitled, "The High School Life of the Class of '39." Due to limited time and facilities we cannot present the play itself. Instead I will read it to you and try to bring out its dramatic qualities. Now on with the play.

ACT I

Setting—An institution of learning, namely, The Enfield High School.

Time—A bright September afternoon in the year 1935.

Characters—The Class of 1939.

The Class of '39 enters the Enfield High School as Frightened, Finicky, Freshmen. Their first day as Freshmen is a harrowing experience but in an amazingly short time they blossom out into the most brilliant Freshmen class of all time. Unlike most Freshmen classes who have been more or less mud under the feet of the upperclassmen, the Class of '39 steps out and takes over. In their first year they take part in the Jumbo Jamboree and have the upper-classmen green with envy over their fishing booth. The feature of the year is the election of the class officers. Ernest Burgess is elected President, Vice-President, Margaret Leach; Margaret Cook, Secretary; and Eli Raffia, Treasurer.

ACT II

Setting—Same as Act 1.

Time—About eight weeks later.

Characters—Same as Act 1 who have now become sophisticated sophomores, and joined the ranks of the intelligencia.

As Sophomores the talents which served them so well in their Freshmen year are further brought out in the Hi-Y Minstrel directed by Mr. Langford, and entitled "Air Revue." The vocal solos of Mary McNally and Frank Morrison are the highlights of the show.

For the first time in many years the music department produces a light opera entitled the "Pirates of Penzance." The production is helped by the talents of Frank Morrison and Irene Hoersch.

The class officers are Ernest Burgess, President; Mary Sheehan, Vice-President; Dorothy Allen, Secretary; and Donald Sullivan, Treasurer.

ACT III

Scene—Same as Act 2.

Time—About eight weeks later.

Characters—Same as Act 2 but they have developed into serious minded individuals.

As Juniors, the Class of '39 selects Ernest Burgess, President; Mary Sheehan, Vice-President; Dorothy Allen, Secretary; Donald Sullivan, Treasurer. The first important social event of the year is the annual Hi-Y Minstrel, presented following the plan of a Showboat Revue. James Donnelly, Mary McNally, Thomas Sullivan and Frank Morrison, along with many other members of the Junior Class help make the production a huge success. Mr. Langford is again the director.

Next on the social calendar is the school play entitled "The Charm School" presented under the direction of Miss Javorski. Margaret Leach, Mary Halak, Janet Campbell and Carmelina Di Fredo who hold leading roles, contribute in a large way to the success of the play.

The next undertaking of the class (with the help of a few Seniors) is the Gilbert and Sullivan Operetta entitled H. M. S. Pinafore and directed by Mr. Merritt. Leading parts are taken by David Johnston, Janet Armstrong, and Robert Leggett.

The crowning Social Event of the year is the Junior Prom which proves to be a social and financial success. Host Alden Ridley and Hostess Janet Armstrong preside over the gala affair.

Thus ends the Junior Year of the Class of '39.

ACT IV

Scene—Same as preceding acts.

Time—About 8 weeks later.

Characters—Class of '39 who have achieved the envious title of "Dignified Seniors."

To guide them in their Senior year, the Class of '39 elects

Ernest Burgess—President,

Mary Sheehan—Vice-President,

Jean Conley—Secretary,

Donald Sullivan—Treasurer.

To start the year off with a bang a large number of the class takes part in the annual Hi-Y Minstrel entitled "Nite Club Revue." Stars of the show are David Johnston, Thomas Sullivan, Frank Morrison, Mary McNally, Janet Armstrong, Desmond Hyde and Robert Leggett. Mr. Langford directs again.

Next they put on one of the most successful Senior Proms in years. Host David Dolge and Hostess Marilyn Coons present a striking appearance at this social affair.

After their Christmas Vacation the Senior Class returns and begins work on the school play entitled "Come Out of the Kitchen." Included in the "All Senior Cast" are Margaret Cook, Janet Campbell, Janet Armstrong, Eleanor Smith, Mary Halak, Raymond Kaminsky, Joseph Bosco, Alden Ridley, Francis Smith, Frank Morrison and Thomas Sullivan. The production is under the able direction of Miss Javorski.

The one-act play "A Proposal Under Difficulties" represents Enfield in the one-act play festival. The director is Miss Collins and the cast is composed of Margaret Cook, Janet Campbell, David Dolge and Joseph Bosco.

Enfield's debating team finishes second in the State finals. The argumentative abilities of David Johnston, Frank Morrison, Mary Halak, Raymond Kaminsky, and Ruth Damon were the highlights of the debating campaign. The first week of May finds about 70 members of the Senior Class following the tradition of the annual Washington visit. The trip will live long in the memories of those who were fortunate enough to go.

The Enfield High Static blossoms out into a first-class literary publication. Miss Crombie, the faculty advisor; Margaret Cook, the editor; and Margaret Leach, Katherine McLaren, Janet Campbell, Carol Horner, Stanley Nosal, and Hubert McCormack who made up the rest of the staff, have a lot to be proud of.

In the list of outstanding athletes are the names of Borski, Melfa, Nosal, Porcello, Morrison, Scavatto, Bernier and Zawada. Most of these boys starred in sports all through their High School Careers.

During the Junior and Senior Years the Class of '39 lost two of its most respected members, Lottie Bigos and Frederick Fitzgerald. It is to them that we, the Class of '39, dedicate this class history.

To ring down the curtain with a fitting quotation, I quote from Thomas Heywood who said: "The world's a theatre, the earth a stage, which God and Nature do with actors fill."

THE CLASS PROPHECY OF 1939

(By Donald Sullivan, Helen Jedziniak, Thomas La Russa, Palma Mancini)

SCENE—GYPSY CAMP

Part I—By Donald Sullivan

We the internationally known "Phoney Forecasters" have been requested by that remarkable and unforgettable Class of 1939 to peer into the future and prophesy coming events up to 1950. We are gypsies who have traveled from the Soviet to Sacramento. We are known for our ability to forecast the future aided by our magic kettle.

As I gaze into the future, I see:

Dorothy Allen as a school teacher out in the great plains of West Wallop.

Mary Angelica and Virginia Chillson out in Hollywood where they are both fighting for the part of Scarlett O'Hara, I think that glamour girl Shirley Temple will get it.

Leslie Andrew is still out in Pine Point where he is building a twenty-room cottage for the summer.

Janet Armstrong, the boyfriends are still four deep in front of her house.

Jean Bailes is the matron at the Prison for Women Drivers.

Grace Cimino is her secretary.

Adele Baj is at the head of Frank Cook's hospital for aged dogs.

Dorothy Vivier and Kenneth Pelkey have just finished their latest experiment of raising bananas without the peels.

Agnes and Leona Baltronis are doing a sister act at Ernie Burgess's "Nab and Stab Casino."

Nuvart Baronian and Margaret Cook are partners in a Speech Activity School with Evelyn Cormier acting as the Principal.

Malcolm Bernier, the boy who looks like Joe Di Maggio, is bat boy for the Shaker Nine.

Wanda Blonder runs a dude ranch for Marilyn Coons who is too busy taking care of her own dude, David Dolge.

Charles Borski has just been elected coach of Enfield's baseball team because the team won the championship and the last coach got a stroke.

Antoinette Bosco is happily married to that bread winner, Jerry Cardone.

Joseph Bosco is a matinee idol with the W. P. A. Theater Guild.

Barbara Bouchard is secretary for the big steel magnate, Donald Comstock, who by the way is still walking to Rockville to see his girl.

Mary Cammilleri is a hairdresser at Irene Clarkin's beauty parlor.

Donald Campbell prints the "Shopping News" now instead of delivering it.

Howard Hicks is leading an orchestra at the Cassotta Sisters' Dine and Dance Palace.

Frances Casavant is teaching pygmies the secrets of chemistry in dense, dark Africa.

Nicholas Bartlotta has just been signed up in Hollywood to take the leading part in "The Great Lover."

Rita Charest has opened a beauty salon and she is her own best customer for cosmetics.

Charles Comparetto the organizer of hitch-hikers of America has just completed a two day tour of Suffield and Somers.

Frank Morrison and Jean Conley are happily stored away in a small bungalow with all of Frank's camera equipment.

Part II—By Helen Jedziniak

Our magic kettle reveals the following interesting information:

Alden Ridley living on his model cow farm in Scitico where he trains Jersey cows to eat Hershey bars and give malted milk. Then I quickly glance into Texas where I see Leger Starr as the model drugstore cowboy.

Edward Ryan sits in the middle of Asia where he has just finished his latest edition on Chemistry entitled "How and When to Study It."

In Washington I notice Jane Wagg at the head of the taxicab monopoly. Now she can argue with the customer instead of the driver concerning the fare (as she did on her last Washington trip). Also spending time there is Senator Stephen Wence who is trying to push through a new bill for allowing students to attend class at their own convenience.

My eyes tour the world and I see in India, Francis Symth playing strip poker with Mahatma Ghandi. In addition there is John Renals who is running a roller coaster concession in a park owned by Joseph Wlodkoski.

I quickly move towards France and there I see "Tommy" Sullivan who is showing the thirty million Frenchmen where they were wrong. I also see Alice Szczepanek and Jennie Narewski who are there on a vacation from their jobs as models. They are looking for the same thirty million Frenchmen that "Tommy" Sullivan took care of. Marilyn Rush is there giving pointers to the French women as to how to become domestic, just like she was back in Enfield.

Jean Oates that well-known opera star is giving a concert for the benefit of the aged members of the Class of 1939.

I swiftly focus my eyes on Russia where that famous Communistic leader Robert Underwood is giving a soap box speech on nothing in particular and everything in general. Mary Sheehan and Delia Swades are also there trying to teach the Russian women how to save time by planting zippers with the potatoes so they won't have to peel them later on.

Evelyn Santenella is at the head of the Salvation Army in Enfield.

Elizabeth Watton, Dorothy Tamulis, and Sarah Theofiles are models at a dress shop which is owned by Elizabeth Shea where Katherine Russoto is a fully equipped commercial advertiser.

John White is a full fledged radio operator on a ship bound for the wilds of Borneo. Edmund Zawada and Eli Raffia, two sports writers, are taking a trip on the same boat.

To supply the demand for all day suckers Mary Santenella and Mary Shea have opened their new and elaborate lollipop shop. Frank Zyck has just opened a restaurant in Enfield where his star customers, William Jatkevicius and Mary Rocznia, newly elected coaches of a basketball team keep him pretty busy.

Sophie Pierz, Fannie Pohorylo and Carmel Soricelli are on a hunting expedition looking for strange animals for the zoo owned by Eleanor Smith. Last, but not least, is Enfield's own "King of Rhythm" Dcnald Sullivan who is teaching the natives in Africa how to beat the tom toms.

Part III—By Thomas La Russa

As I dabble in the future, I see:

Arthur Manning beating on the drums at Mike Melfa's new night club in Powder Hollow. As a feature attraction there is Eileen Sullivan and Bob Leggett, the new dancing team.

The magic pot reveals Hubert McCormack Public Enemy No. 1 being captured by Henry Polek latest of the G-Men. Teddy Ludwin noted shyster rushes to McCormack's defense.

As the bubbling water clears, it reveals Marie Lord who has a millionaire in her old classmate, Thomas La Voi.

Jeanette Lehmann has secured a position in the State Employment Agency where she is the state critic.

Janice Neelans newly appointed state supervisor has just completed a civil service test.

In far away Italy I see John Provenzano playing in Mussolini's musical unit.

In Enfield Vincent Porcello has just finished walking his last mile to the altar with Edna Matyskela. Stan Luczai has just won the ten-mile walking race.

Palma Mancini has secured the position of head dress designer at Alfred Lees's exclusive dress shop in Scitico. Vivian MacFawn noted society woman, is her most elite customer.

Lena Maggio has just opened up an Ice Cream Parlor in Alaska, and her best patron is Katherine McLaren, noted tennis champ, who uses snowballs and snowshoes to play the game.

Earl Pelkey left Mary McNally waiting at the altar so that he could pop the question to his old flame, Mary O'Hara. Nathalie Nuccio and John Rybick are winning new acclaim and laurels for being the new jitterbug champs of the country.

Josephine Piorek has become the Greta Garbo of the stage.

Marjorie Malley has just been appointed first woman mail carrier in Thompsonville.

Helen Navikonis recently secured her fifth divorce from the well-known explorer, Joseph Scavatto.

Sophie Pcdosek has become adviser to the lovelorn and some of her best clients are Jean Moore, Molly Miltner, and Cynthia Oliver.

Louis Sperrazza, alias "Little Caesar," just robbed the Babies' Lollipop Bank stealing 3,000 lollipops.

Charles Brutto has just found a new way of shaving without the use of cream or razor. The method he uses is the spreading of milk on his chin and the cat licks it off.

Joseph Italiano just broke the record of filibustering: He talked for five days in a row in order to stop Senator Stan Nosal's bill concerning W. P. A. funds in the rocky hills of Suffield.

Part IV—By Palma Mancini

The magic kettle does not contain much more information but I can make out a few more details:

Carmela Criscitelli, a noted foot doctor, and her two assistants, Ruth Damon and Mary Di Lorenzo, are holding a patient down while she goes to work.

James Gaetani is a family man with four children and his poor wife, Wanda Koski is being worked to death.

Carmelina Di Fredo is the new Physical Instructor at Enfield High and she is proving her new theory that you can just as well teach the students sitting down as standing up.

Oh, here is an interesting future, Lillian Gemme has become the wife of that great Metropolitan tenor Desmond Hyde.

There's Genevra Hastings, that lovely little debutante, and that heartbreakin Romeo Joseph Goles who are altar-bound.

Margaret Leach has been modeling street clothes at the famous restaurant "Sloppy Jane" which is owned by Lillian and Doris Kelly. Some of the waitresses there are Mary Halak, Irene Hoersch and Ellen Gibson.

Thomas La Russa, that famous criminal lawyer, has a very interesting case on hand between Gene Lavigne and Robert Haight concerning a new counterfeiting machine.

I see calamity for Marion Cicoria if she continues to run around with David Devlin the renowned hitch-hiking king.

Joseph Gracewski has won a crown for being the best ham and egg raiser.

Helen Jedziniak is superintendent of the State Reformatory for Women. She is happy in her work because she is able to put into practice her theory of—"How to Reform Delinquent Girls" by the modern method of fun and freedom.

Wendla Redstone, Virginia Field, Theresa Gaudet and Dorothy Duggan have taken a new manual training course at Boys' Town.

Carol Horner has just finished a cartoon which will be exhibited at the 1999 World's Fair. Her model was the famous comedy star, Janet Campbell.

David Johnston and Raymond Kaminsky have just won the combined award for their marvelous performance in "Frankenstein's Greatest Scare."

Eleanor Hyland and Fannie Haznar have signed a contract to advertise snowshoes in California.

Gladys Falkowski has opened a new tea room near Freshwater Bridge. At opening night she had as guest artist the only collegian goldfish swallower, Florence Falkowski.

The magic liquid in the kettle has served its purpose and ceases to bubble. The "Phoney Forecasters" hope their predictions have pleased you and now we bid you adieu.

 How can we do you justice?
 You surely are a star!
 Actress, and cheerful person,
 Your gifts will take you far!

Janet Armstrong.....Musical Instrument
 "Music hath charms" they say
 "To soothe the savage beast!"
 And Janet certainly has charms
 galore,
 In many forms, at least!

David Johnston.....Scroll of Honors
 Most respected, class orator, he
 A student, a pal, and a friend.
 To his honors, no end we can see;
 On success, he can surely depend.

Alden Ridley.....Golf Stick
 Alden's favorite sport is golf,
 In which he does excel;
 The captain of the team is he;
 He may be a champ, who can tell?

Mary Halak.....Badge of Merit
 A most diligent girl is Mary,
 Whatever the work may be;
 Be it typing, debating,
 Dramatics, or skating,
 All hopes for her future we see.

Irene Hoersch.....Music
 Irene has a voice that is grand,
 A Prima Donna some day she'll be,
 Whether at home, or in some foreign land
 We'll all be waiting to see.

Frank Morrison.....Camera
 Camera are Frank's chief interest,
 Of which he owns the best;
 He has many prizes to show
 That his work is standing the test!

Antoinette Bosco.....Needles
 A homemaker is she,
 Her clever fingers fly,
 She will successful be
 When needles, she doth ply.

David Dolge.....Car
 To David we give this little car,
 To take him near and far.
 He might take his girl to ride;
 Who she is, we can't decide!

Virginia Chillson.....Hair Rinse
 Virginia has lovely red hair,
 Which she arranges with care;
 This hair rinse will be sure
 Its radiance to secure.

Elizabeth Shea.....Cartoon
 Elizabeth is so bright and gay,
 Always doing her best,
 May she go merrily on her way,
 From good deed, never rest.

Elizabeth Watton.....Want Ad
 Prizes in typing Betty has won
 She'll use this knowledge well;
 Her services are in much demand,
 As this want ad all will tell.

Leger Starr.....Truck
 In business with his father;
 In hockey, just for fun.
 Take this truck, and use it;
 We're sure that it will run.

John Rybick.....Weathervane
 John Rybeck comes from King
 Street,
 In farming he excels;
 We'd like to make him happy;
 This vane our friendship tells.

Charles Campareto.....Photo of Rooster
 In poultry and photography,
 Our Charles is very good;
 We hope this photo pleases him,
 Our praise is understood.

Jane Wagg.....Blue Ribbon
 Jane is very versatile
 Sweet and charming too,
 Loyal to old Enfield High
 To all its standards, true.

Evelyn Santanella.....Book of Speech
 Evelyn is not afraid
 To talk in worthy causes,
 She's a girl who knows her mind,
 To speak, she never pauses.
 Tho' she may be quite famous,
 For this verse she'll never blame us!

Josephine Piorek.....Flying Machine
 Come Josephine, in my flying machine,
 We'll roam over skylanes together;
 As hostess, or as secretary
 You'll win, in any weather.

Mary O'Hara.....Teacher's Certificate
 Mary O'Hara to Normal will go,
 To drink her fill of knowledge;
 She will become a teacher, there,
 When she has gone thru college.

Jean Conley....Card of Congratulations
 O Flower that blooms for one alone,
 We cannot seem to scold you;
 The knight is ardent, and most fair;
 May happiness enfold you.

Michael Melfa.....Basketball
 Many a game for his team,
 Was won by Michael's fine work,
 This basketball will oft recall
 The fact that our "Mike" does not
 "shirk."

Rita Charest.....Compact
 Shiny eyes and charming smile,
 Pretty face and sweet;
 Just to help you keep it so,
 Take this compact, neat.

Helen Navikonis.....Check for $1,000
 This little check for a thousand,
 Will never fail to aid;
 Here's luck and happiness and fun,
 For a kind and thoughtful maid.

Mary Shea.....Tennis Racquet
 Mary is a loyal friend,
 A steady worker, true;
 In golf and tennis she's a star,
 She will win laurels, new.

Henry Polek.....Tractor
 Henry is an "Aggie";
 With a tractor, he is clever;
 He will be a great success,
 In a most worthwhile endeavor.

Wanda Koskie.....Style Book
 With this book on styles of hair,
 We hope to do our part;
 We express our admiration,
 For your sartorial art.

Earl Pelkey.....Book "How To Win
 Friends and Influence People"
 Earl is merry, Earl is gay,
 With a happy disposition!
 A loyal friend to have around;
 A jollier boy cannot be found.

Frank Cook.....World's Fair Pass
 Frank did work and help and plan,
 To all our wishes cater,
 Though he helped us to make the trip,
 He had to wait 'till later.

Edna Matyskiela.....Book
 Edna is a Librarian, fine,
 To help she's always ready;
 This pretty maid from Suffield
 Is bright, well-read, and steady.

Virginia Field.....Wreath
 Virginia is a quiet girl,
 But we all know she's clever;
 She does her lessons very well;
 For good friends, she'll lack never.

Mary D'Lorenzo.....Thermometer
 Mary plans to be a nurse,
 She will regret this never;
 For she's sweet, and capable
 Of carrying out this endeavor.

Mary Cammilleri.....Good Report Card
 Mary, Mary, not contrary,
 Well do you cooperate;
 Pretty smile, and fine deportment,
 Yours should be a happy fate.

Delia Swades.....Loving Cup
 In the winter she skates;
 In the summer she swims;
 This beautiful trophy,
 She deservedly wins.

James Gaetani.....Box of Pep
 Jimmy's never in a hurry
 Always walks so slow
 Here's a box of pep for him
 To make his energy flow.

Janice Neelans.....Megaphone
 Her voice is soft
 And hard to hear
 This megaphone will
 Make it clear.

Robert Underwood.....Model
 Bob likes such gay colors;
 A dress designer he will be;
 This doll will serve as a model,
 So he won't have to pay a fee.

Donald Comstock.....Airplane
 Airplanes are my hobby,
 An aviator I'll be;
 I'd rather sail above the clouds,
 Than a dark and stormy sea.

Eileen Sullivan.....Cinderella's Slipper
 A fairy sprite, with dancing feet,
 An elfin smile, so sweet;
 May you have a happy future,
 And wear this slipper, neat.

Vincent Porcello..Token of Friendship
 Vincent is an athlete,
 In three sports he excels;
 A better friend could not be found,
 And this his record tells.

Joseph Scavotto.....Pliers
 Joe Scavotto likes to play
 All kinds of sports from day to day;
 But now he must settle down and work,
 With dentists "pliers" he will not
 shirk.

John Provenzano.....Clarinet
 Johnny is a quiet lad,
 Quiet all day long;
 We give to him this clarinet,
 So he can play a song.

Thomas Sullivan.....Date Book
 Sully is a loyal friend,
 Constant, tried and true;
 This date book will remind him,
 Of girl friends, quite a few.

Adele Baj.....Bike Tire
 To this girl from State Line,
 Who always rides a bike,
 We give this tiny tire,
 So she'll not have to hike.

Charles Brutto.....Trumpet
 This curly-haired boy does play,
 A trumpet with a band;
 And plays it all the live-long day,
 Which always seems so grand.

Doris and Lillian Kelly
Identification Tags
 The Kelly twins are much alike,
 They can't be told apart;
 To them we give a tag apiece,
 So they won't break our heart.

Eugene Lavigne.....Muffler
 Gene and his car need a muffler,
 Without one it's scarcely efficient;
 This muffler of course,
 Is just for the "horse";
 But a word to the wise is sufficient.

Howard Hicks.....Traffic Laws
 Howard always drives to school,
 You never see him speed;
 He drives along with ease and care,
 And officers he'll ever heed.

Joseph Bosco.....Watch
 This bold lad is good at track,
 At hurdles, he can't be beat;
 In college he will need this watch,
 To keep time with his feet.

Nichelias Bartolotta.....Radio
 This lad has a Packard,
 A car he drives with ease;
 We all give him this radio
 To do with as he please.

Thomas LaRussa.....Car
 We find that Tom is a "jitterbug",
 To Springfield he will go;
 This little car will take him far,
 And will our friendship show.

Stanley Luczai.....Blue Ribbon
 Stan Luczai is an Aggie boy,
 Who is also able to run;
 To work on the farm is his great
 joy,
 And many prizes he's won.

Donald Campbell.....Hockey Stick
 Don Campbell is a speedster,
 On ice his skates will fly;
 Just hand him any hockey stick,
 And he will pass you by.

Grace and Angelina Cassotta
Bike for Two
 We have two sisters from Suffield
 They cross the bridge each day
 In case they should get weary,
 With this bike, drive care away.

Louis Sperazza.....Joke Book
 Louis Sperazza, our smallest boy,
 Is ever gay and glad;
 He always likes to play some jokes,
 But these are not too bad.

Irene Clarkin.....Hair Net
 Irene has soft and wavy locks,
 That always look so neat,
 This hair net will be helpful,
 And she'll always look just sweet.

Edward Ryan.....Golf Stick
 Eddy is very good at golf,
 Plays his game right well;
 When 18 holes are over,
 His score to all he'll tell.

Arthur Manning.....Drum
 To play the drum is his delight,
 He practices both day and night;
 This drum, we will confess,
 May help him to success.

David Devlin.....Radio Book
 David likes his radios,
 For interest he'll never lack;
 To him we give this radio book,
 So he can make some "jack."

Ruth Damon.....Debate Book
 This red-haired lass from Suffield way
 We're sure the school will miss;
 "Debates won't be the same," we say,
 "We're very sure of this."

Margaret Cook.....Catalog
 Margaret plans to go to college
 To further her education,
 Here we have a catalog
 To help her get a location.

Gladys Falkowski.....Noisemaker
 This pretty girl from Elm Street
 Is cute as cute can be;
 She never makes a single sound,
 And trouble she'll never see.

Joseph Italiano.....Compass
 Joe is now a sea scout,
 A sailor he's sure to be;
 To him we give this compass,
 So he won't get lost at sea.

Fannie Haznar.....Needle and Thread
 When it comes to sewing,
 Fannie is the one,
 To do the work, a good job, too,
 As though it were only fun.

Frances Casavant.....A Jewel
 From Springfield Frances came
 To join our class this year;
 A jewel fair, she brings us fame,
 And to each one is dear.

Mary Sheehan.....Emergency Kit
 Mary's favorite career
 Will find her ready to lead;
 This emergency kit will surely fit
 And help a sweet maiden succeed.

Katherine Russotto.....Lipstick
 Katherine's lipstick is very becoming,
 And she likes it too,
 To keep up her supply, we give her more,
 To keep it looking new.

Fannie Pohorylo.....Roller Skates
 This active girl is quite athletic,
 She skates and rides a bike.
 When she falls we're sympathetic,
 Because, then, she has to hike.

Francis Smyth.....Clarinet
 Smitty is an all-around boy,
 Athletically inclined,
 To the orchestra, he is a joy,
 A better lad is hard to find.

Mary McNally.....Contract with Rudy Vallee
 A sweet girl is Mary,
 She has a sweet voice;
 To hear her sing ballads
 Makes us all rejoice.

Carmelina DiFredo.....Dictaphone Record
 When in contests she competes,
 She brings a prize back home.
 Her adversaries, she defeats,
 On a dictaphone.

William Jatkevicius.....Hammock
 William likes to take a rest,
 And play some tennis, too;
 This hammock will be helpful
 To help enjoy the view.

Wanda Blondek.....Shorthand Notebook
 Wanda is a worker,
 A good friend, and true;
 So she will be successful,
 With shorthand notebook, new.

Desmond Hyde.....Record of His Voice
 Our best looking boy can draw and sing;
 What could be more entrancing?
 Now you'd be very happy,
 If he would take you dancing.

Marion Cicoria.....Pencil
 Marion is business-like
 And she may go to college
 May she use this pencil fine
 To help acquire more knowledge.

Robert Leggett.....Book on Dancing
 Bob's our best boy dancer;
 He plays a trumpet well;
 He's merry all the live-long day,
 As all his friends can tell.

 John is quiet and steady,
 He's eager for work;
 For fun he's always ready,
 And he will never shirk.

Ciriaco Cardone.....Gavel
 Jerry is Home Room Chairman
 And a business manager, too;
 An "all-around person" is needed,
 And we pay our respects to you!

Frank Zych.....Map, and Time Table
 Take this map and time table
 To use on your next trip;
 To help us, you proved able;
 Next time you may go via ship.

Marie Lord.....Basketball
 To this athletic miss we give
 A basketball for sport;
 On Hazardville's star team she plays,
 For this must be her "forte."

Jean Bailes.....Mirror
 Petite, and cute, and charming
 We all do like her well;
 A very, pleasing story
 This mirror now will tell.

Wendla Redstone.....Back Seat in Rm. 26
 Wendla just loves twenty-six,
 So we want to please her;
 Here's a seat which she can fix
 Always ready to receive her.

 Lena is a dainty miss,
 With shining eyes and hair;
 If you know her, you'll notice this;
 "And she's most thoughtful," you'll declare.

Jeanette Lehmann.....Bugle
 With bugle and with trombone,
 In Legion Corps and "High";
 Jeanette will charm, with music's
 spell,
 With all contenders vie.

Marjorie Malley.....Friendship Circle Pin
 Brown eyes and pleasant looks,
 A winning way has she;
 A friendly girl, a jolly pal,
 As happy as can be.

Hubert McCormack.....Ledger
 Our quietest boy is Hubert;
 A businessman he will be;
 Industrious, willing and alert,
 An ideal man is he.

Agnes and Leona Baltronis
 Pink and Blue Ribbons
 Which is Agnes? Which is Leona?
 That is what we do not know!
 Let pink stand for "Leona",
 While blue will "Agnes" show!

Barbara Bouchard.....Steno. Pad
 Barbara is a fine student,
 Good use she makes of her time
 In typing and stenography
 Her quality is prime.

Ernest Burgess.....E. H. S. Award
 An all-round boy is Ernest,
 Studious, fine and true,
 In Hi-Y, sports or socials;
 Of such folks, there are few!

 A successful farmer is Joe
 With a tractor, shovel, or hoe.
 Willing to work all day long
 He never will go wrong.

Thomas Lo Voi....."Joker"
 Thomas is a loyal pal,
 Full of fun and jokes;
 If you don't take care, when he's around,
 You'll be the victim of a hoax.

Evelyn Cormier.....Carbon Paper
 Evelyn will be a help,
 In any business line;
 For she is neat and capable,
 And will make a record fine!

Dorothy Vivier....Pretty Girl's Picture
"Where are you going, my pretty maid?"

"To Enfield High School, sir," she said.
And you would look, far and wide,
To find a prettier girl by your side!

Marilyn Rush....."Vox Pop" Prize
Marilyn won the prize,
In the "Vox Pop" Contest, hard;
She must be very wise,
In this line she'll be starred.

Raymond Kaminsky.....A "Line"
In debates, he is outstanding,
In dramatics, extra fine;
His presence is commanding
And we all admire his "line."

Palma Mancini
Book "Public Speaking"
At public speaking, second place
Wins Palma in our contest;
Hereafter she'll win many a race,
With this text on "How To Say It."

Edmund Zawada.....Baseball
Athlete, with curly locks
In power you'll grow
This baseball you'll use
To an advantage, we know.

Charles Borski.....Letters on Badge
A three letter man is he
In sports he does excel,
A finer athlete you'll never see,
Than this small badge will tell.

Donald Sullivan.....Joke Book
Our wittiest person is he,
With always a joke up his sleeve.
This joke book we present to him,
To give his bright wits a reprieve.

Sophie Pierz.....Dancing Ticket
Who was dancing last night?
And such a good dancer, too.
If she'd like to go tonight,
We know this ticket will do.

 The president of the Home "Ec."
 Club
 Is a merry lass called "squeeks."
 We love to hear her jolly peal,
 This oil just volumes speaks.

Genevra Hastings.....Honor Roll List
 Genevra makes the honor roll
 And though she's quite demure
 She's full of fun with everyone
 And a good pal, we're sure.

John White.....Horn
 This radio man has a Fiat,
 And he can run it right;
 He'll use this horn in traffic jams,
 To blow with all his might.

Vivian MacFawn.....Dancing Shoes
 This young lady likes to tap
 At a fast and furious pace;
 To her we give these tapping shoes,
 To put her right in place.

Sophie Podosek.....Microphone
 Sophie has a quiet voice,
 Which makes her hard to understand;
 I think this little Microphone,
 Will carry her voice throughout the land.

Dorothy Duggan.....French Book
 Dot Duggan is a French Student,
 In this she does more than well;
 We think this little French book
 A likely story will tell.

"CLASS WILL"

(By Alden Ridley)

Know all men by these presents, that we, the Class of 1939, of the Enfield High School, in the Town of Enfield, County of Hartford, State of Conn., being of sound mind, memory and judgment, do hereby make and declare, and publish this our last will and testament, and do earnestly desire that these, our last requests, be carried out as hereinafter directed:

ITEM: To Mr. Lee, our fond and eminent principal, we give and bequeath our sincere affection and continued appreciation for his wise guidance throughout our years at Enfield.

ITEM: To all members of the faculty, who have never failed to be our friends and advisors, we bequeath our sincere thanks for the help rendered us.

ITEM: We give and bequeath to the Juniors the great noble honor of becoming Seniors in order that they may have a Class Book, which will displease $99 \frac{99}{100} \%$ of their classmates, and we add our hopes that they will be as disappointed as we were when we found out that our pictures looked just like us.

ITEM: The following bequests we make in good faith, hoping they will be received in like spirit:

1. To the Class of 1940, the dignity and stateliness that is typically symbolized in the Class of 1939.

2. To Thomas Birdsall we leave Francis Smyth's special arrangement of "Begin the Beguine."

3. We leave Hubert McCormack's Lux complexion to that North End Romeo, Francis Devine.

4. Joseph Bosco leaves his ability to exaggerate descriptions of out of town girls to Charles Hanum.

IN MEMORIAM

Our hearts may be gladdened because we have reached the first important goal in our life, but we recall with sorrow that two members of the Class of 1939 are no longer with us. Two friends and classmates, Lottie Bigos and Frederick Fitzgerald, have passed away from earthly troubles and joys to finer and more wonderful things above. They have reached and successfully passed the highest goal attainable.

Died December 2, 1938

Buddy Fitzgerald was one of the finest fellows who ever attended Enfield High School. During his three years at Enfield he made himself known through his ability and willingness. Here was a person who could be depended on. He was an active member on the Hi-Y Club, serving as treasurer last year; manager of the athletic teams; and prominent in all school functions. His friendly disposition and personality endeared him in the hearts of all.

Died April 9, 1938

Lottie Bigos will always be remembered as a quiet, refined girl, who carried on her work diligently. Although she was unable to attend school regularly, due to illness, she was praised by her teachers, for being able to keep up her work. Despite her illness she participated in a few school activities. She was a willing and able student admired by all who knew her.

CLASS SONG

(Words by John White—Music by Janet Armstrong)

The musical score is for two voices (treble and bass) in 2/4 time. The key signature is G major (one sharp). The music is divided into five staves, each with lyrics below it. The first staff begins with a quarter note in the bass clef, followed by a half note in the treble clef. The second staff begins with a half note in the bass clef, followed by a quarter note in the treble clef. The third staff begins with a quarter note in the bass clef, followed by a half note in the treble clef. The fourth staff begins with a half note in the bass clef, followed by a quarter note in the treble clef. The fifth staff begins with a quarter note in the bass clef, followed by a half note in the treble clef.

Guided for our future work,
Ready for the start,
Eagerly we look ahead,
Joy in every heart.

Tomorrow's skies cannot be gray
For our purpose strong,
Is to build a brighter world,
Vanquish every wrong.

Service shall our ideal be,
Giving of our best,
Never daunted by defeat,
Glad to meet each test.

With grateful hearts we praise thy name,
Hail to Enfield High,
We will strive to honor thee,
As the years go by.

ADVICE TO THE UNDERGRADUATES

(By Robert Leggett)

Ladies, Gentlemen, Taxpayers and my dear Little Friends of the Underclasses:

It is my painful duty to follow tradition and advise these unsophisticated little imps, who after tomorrow night must be strictly on their own. How they are going to miss the guiding hand of the Class of '39. Without us, as an example to follow day by day, I truly tremble for them. I know this advice is a waste of energy on my part, being what they are, but alas! it is imperative that nothing be left undone that has the slightest possibility of improving their state.

First of all I wish to speak to the JUNIOR CLASS. Subnormal though you may be, at least fifty percent of you will, I am sure, pass on probation into the Senior Class. Seniors? Ha! Glamour girls and jazz boys, you are to rule the school. In order to succeed, I will give you some advice.

Any of you who play in the school orchestra must keep up the standard for sour notes. This year your record was excellent. Twelve discords apiece at rehearsals and two at each finished performance. Junior Home Economics girls, when you cook something make sure it tastes as good as it smells. The odors that have wafted through the corridors from Room 5 have been most tantalizing. Many an illustrious Senior has wasted valuable time by following these odors, only to find, on reaching the Home Economics room, a conglomeration, unfit for man or beast.

Next year in study hall sit in the back and make all the rumpus you want to. After all you will be privileged Seniors. Take advantage of it. When the school was built the name Study Hall was applied to the wrong room. Room 26 is really, on the plans, the Recreation room. Don't let the teachers pull the wool over your eyes. Just have a good time while you are there.

SOPHOMORES: Please! Oh please! Won't you grow up? Last year you were Freshmen. This year you were supposed to have been Sophomores. I really did not see much change in your attitude, nor have you outgrown your childish characteristics. Oh yes, a few of your females did learn the art of plucking their eyebrows, but after all, that is only permissible for Senior girls. It truly is absurd for you little lassies to do such a thing. The boys, I notice, are wearing flashy socks. That, too, is trespassing on Senior rights. A few improvements have been made, I grant you, but next year you must take your place as the second highest class. Make a "flop" of one prom at least to warrant your being called Juniors.

When your class ring committee meets, have them think of something original, say a ball and chain or an iron pipe. Be outstanding, but by that I don't mean for your lads to rush the Freshmen girls. They are for the Seniors to look over and the Freshmen boys to worship from afar.

One of your largest tasks will be to watch over "Muscles" Snyder. Install a time clock at the side door so he can register when he enters and leaves. Thus no argument as to the hours he has put in. Also be kind to Louise Slamon for I judge she will miss those rendezvous with some members of our class.

FRESHMEN: This will probably be a waste of time because I imagine that most of the infants are home in bed at this late hour. I hope some of you will translate this into their language and tell it to them. The first afternoon I came back I thought they had turned the school over to a day nursery. Knickers and bow ties were in evidence. Hair ribbons and ankle socks were predominantly worn by the girls. The first project I would take over next year, if I were you, would be to open a milk bar. Thus you could give some of your "shorties" a push upward. I'm warning you that next year they will be stepped upon.

I would also advise you to give some of your minor attention to next year's dancing class. At proms you seem to be in a Walkathon. Also at these functions don't look at the upperclassmen's girls, it is most embarrassing.

UNDERGRADUATES: Now may I assume a more serious attitude. For four years we have labored together in dear old Enfield High. The Class of '39 appreciates all your cooperation in the various school activities we have sponsored. We wish for you a great success in all you undertake in your remaining years. So to you the classes of '40, '41 and '42 the Class of '39 hands the torch. Keep it burning brightly!

RESPONSE FOR UNDERGRADUATES

(By Charles Misuraca, President of Junior Class)

Ladies and Gentlemen—and my dear self-infatuated and over-inflated Class of '39:

It is perfectly clear to us that after tomorrow night we will probably not see any of you seniors back in school. But, I ask, what have we to lose? Nothing! There is no guiding hand to miss. Oh yes, you say you tremble for us. Well, you have a good reason to tremble. For how do you know whether or not your diplomas will be blank? As for wasting energy on us, you foolish things should store it away, because your foolhardy advice is unnecessary.

My dear off-key seniors, speaking of the school orchestra, all of the underclassmen are very happy and grateful for your departure at this time. Without your hoots and squeaks, our school has great possibilities for a good orchestra.

Now it certainly is too bad that some of you so-called illustrious—but we know better—seniors had to be lured to the school kitchen by those tantalizing odors and be in for an awful let-down. Each time, you should have made a primary investigation to make sure they were underclassmen doing the cooking, who by the way won most of the Home Economics Awards, and not your own senior girls trying some culinary experiments. Oh, pardon me seniors, culinary pertains to cooking.

Seniors, don't steer the poor innocent sophomores down the crooked path you blazed. Our very dear and esteemed Senior representative seems to be away behind the times. Aha—you should know by this time that the Class of '40 has set a new standard, a higher standard for the Junior classes to follow. If you, my dear Seniors had made as great a success of your Junior Prom as we did you would have inflated to such an extent that you would have blown away into the cosmos and wouldn't be here tonight to ridicule us unwarrantly.

Your Senior crier has called the sophomores babyish—True enough, but we have heard some of you fellows say "those babes aren't so bad."

Seniors wake up, why be in a daze? Those freshmen shorties you saw were optical illusions, for they really are big and good athletic fellows already used in one of our varsity teams. So we really don't need your temperamental hopscotch players anymore.

Seniors let me assume a more serious tone at this time to voice the true feelings of the undergraduates. We are very grateful and thankful for your splendid cooperation and leadership as seniors. We wish you all the luck in the world and it is with deep sorrow that we must bid you farewell.

Class Will — Continued from Page 36

5. Ernest Burgess leaves his "Pepsodent Smile" and blush to Charles Misuraca.
6. Leslie Andrew bequeaths to John Trappe a few strands of hair.
7. We leave Desmond Hyde's curling iron to Blair White.
8. We leave Thomas (Hold Tight) Sullivan's piano playing to that genial maestro, Beno Santandra.
9. Mike Melfa leaves his athletic prowess to his brother, Joseph Melfa.
10. Bob Leggett leaves his musical ability on the trumpet to Elliott Colby.
11. We leave Jean Conley and Frank Morrison's meeting place in the upper school corridor to Allan O'Neil and Mary Kuhm.
12. Margaret Cook leaves her ability in assembling the school newspaper to Jeane Loftus.
13. David Johnston leaves his oratorical abilities to Gloria Drohan for future use in debates.
14. Janet Armstrong leaves the secret of getting to school just before the last bell to Sadie Scavatto.
15. Kenneth Pelky leaves that all-year-round Spring fever feeling to Ralph August.
16. Virginia Chillson gives to Jackie Thompson a formula for keeping hair red.
17. Stanley Luczai leaves his agricultural intellect to Thomas Gracewski.
18. Those who went on the Washington Trip leave their finesse of dodging the house detectives to those who go next year.
19. We who depart from Room 26 leave an automatic floor cleaner for Mrs. Eddy's use.
20. All the remaining property, which has not been disposed of by this will, we give and bequeath to our principal, Mr. Lee for his sole benefit.

We hereby appoint said principal sole executor of this our last will and testament.

In witness thereof, we, the Class of 1939, set our hand and seal this twenty-first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine.
